ATM Down after Robbery Attempt

SALMON ARM (July 24, 2018) – An attempted robbery of an ATM at Centenoka Mall in Salmon Arm leaves it out of service. The incident occurred during the early hours of July 24. While no funds were attained, the machine is destroyed. No one was harmed in the incident. SASCU Credit Union officials are assisting the RCMP with the investigation.

SASCU anticipates an extended period before a replacement ATM can be installed at this location. Alternative SASCU ATMs in Salmon Arm are available at Salmon Arm Uptown and Downtown branches, the Mall at Piccadilly, and the Tim Hortons at 2931 9th Avenue NE.
