SASCU Announces New Director Elected by Acclamation

SALMON ARM (February 11, 2019) – SASCU Financial Group announces that following the 2019 Nominations, incumbent directors Constance Ladell and Frank Popien, and new director Darlene McBain, have been elected by acclamation.

“This was an unusual year for Nominations, as we had only as many candidates as spaces open on the Board,” says Barry Johnson, Board Chair of SASCU Financial Group. “Director Ken Black chose not run for a third term. We would like to thank Ken for six years of service to SASCU and wish him a wonderful retirement.”

Newcomer Darlene McBain is set to join the SASCU Board of Directors. Darlene retired in 2017 after practicing law in the Kamloops area for 17 years. Also an active community volunteer, since moving to Scotch Creek in 2007 she has been a member of the North Shuswap Chamber of Commerce and the Adams River Salmon Society, for whom she served as President from 2011 to 2016.

“We enthusiastically endorse Darlene’s candidacy and look forward to officially welcoming her to the SASCU Board at the Annual General Meeting on May 7,” said Johnson.

Darlene looks forward to continuing her service to the community and ensure SASCU’s continued mission to share our expertise and resources to improve our members’ lives and strengthen our communities.

Director Constance Ladell was first elected to the SASCU Board in 2016 and will be serving her second term. Director Frank Popien was first elected in 2009 and served until taking a brief sabbatical in 2013. Called back to the Board in 2015 to fill a vacancy, Frank will be starting his ninth year in 2019.
