Biography Instructions:

Please write a two-paragraph biography, with a total length not exceeding 250 words (approximately 125 words per paragraph).

- Paragraph 1: Highlight your professional experience and key skill sets that you bring to the Board.
- Paragraph 2: Share your community ties, including volunteer work, local involvement, and any personal connections or contributions to the community.

Quote Request:

Along with your biography, please include a short quote (about 12 words) answering the following question:

“What impact do you hope to bring to SASCU as a director?”

BOARD SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES SELF ASSESSMENT

Key Steps for Analysis

1. The Member Engagement & Director Recruitment and/or Governance Committee are responsible for identifying the optimal mix of skills and competencies needed for the effective governance of the credit union. Appropriate weightings (if any) should be set.
2. 'Rating' is the raw sum. 'Score' is the weighted calculation of the 'Rating'.
3. 'SA' is the Rating in the Self Assessment. (It is important to be aware self-knowledge biases impact self-assessment. Please view the self-assessment as a guide and not as objective ranking of skills)

Rating

- 0 – Inexperienced — You have little to no experience or expertise in this skill or competency.
- 1 – Familiar — You are familiar with the basic concepts of this skill or competency.
- 2 – Knowledgeable — You consider yourself knowledgeable and proficient in this skill or competency.
- 3 – Expert — You consider this skill or competency to be a strength of yours and have actively put your knowledge into practice.
- 4 – Leader — You are highly experienced in this skill or competency and would be confident taking on a leadership role related to it.
- 5 – Masterful — You are extremely experienced in this skill or competency and could effectively teach others to be experts in this area.
