SASCU Announces New Directors

SALMON ARM (February 25, 2022) – SASCU Credit Union has two new directors and an incumbent rounding out their Board this Spring. Following the 2022 Call for Directors, incumbent director Constance Ladell and new directors Curtis Slingerland and June Stewart, have been elected by acclamation.

“We are excited to see some strong SASCU Board experience and a new face completing our team,” said Dave King, Board Chair of SASCU Credit Union. “I look forward to officially welcoming them to the SASCU Board at the May 3rd Annual General Meeting.”

Newcomer Curtis Slingerland and his family relocated from Terrace to Salmon Arm in 2020. Recently Curtis transitioned to his new role as Chief Administrative Officer for the Central Coast Regional District and joins SASCU with years of experience in public administration and governance.

Many members will recognize Director June Stewart from her previous years of service on the SASCU Board. June first joined the SASCU Board in 1986 after nine years as a SASCU employee and served 30 years as a director until stepping away in 2016.

Board Vice Chair Constance Ladell was first elected to the SASCU Board in 2016 and will be serving her third term. A retired lawyer, Ladell remains active in the community as a volunteer for numerous local organizations and committees and also serves on the Board of the Eagle Valley Senior Citizens Society.

“I would like to take this opportunity to thank directors Darlene McBain and Frank Popien who leave the Board after their current terms,” added King. “Darlene joined in 2019 and chairs the Conduct Review and Governance Committee. Frank was first elected in 2009 and served until 2013. Since returning in 2015, Frank has served on all of our committees and currently chairs the Credit & Market Risk Committee. We appreciate all of their hard work and contributions to SASCU.”
